With 5 weeks of the school year to go, attendance stands at 95.8%. The national average for primary schools is usually around 96%.

Reminder

The school is obliged to follow the law when it comes to the issue of holidays taken in term time.

The Education (Pupil Registration) Regulations 2013 prohibit the proprietor of a school granting leave of absence to a pupil, except where an application has been made in advance and the proprietor considers that there are exceptional circumstances relating to the application.

Holidays in term time are not authorised unless the reason for the holiday is deemed "exceptional". Please note that whilst we are aware that holidays are cheaper in term times, this would not constitute an "exceptional circumstance" as it affects all parents and carers.

The full attendance policy is available on the school website.

Where a holiday is taken without authorisation, we would advise parents to pay any fine issued by the court swiftly, to avoid the fine escalating and further costs being imposed, as well as avoiding a criminal record.

Where a holiday is taken without authorisation, it is highly likely that a fine will be forthcoming, as a holiday taken without authorisation is illegal.
